Business Awaiting Tranquillity.

The reception and hall given Saturday evening by Gen. Ludlow, the military commander, outshone every other social function in Havana in recent years. Innumerable red, white and blue electric lights, thousands of roses, hundreds of flags and no end of sabers, bayonets and rifles, artistically grouped, made the scene within the palace memorable. More than a thousand guests attended. Music was furnished by two military bands. All the foreign consuls were in evidence, most of them wearing glittering orders, and many of the women were handsome jewels. Gen. Ludlow day, and the representative Cubans and Spaniards of Havana were present.

Attacrican officials in Havana are surprised at the large number of Cubans now applying in the province of Santiago for a share in the American gratuity. The Cuban officers had assured them that there were not a hundred men in the province who would accept money from the United States, basing the assurance on telegrams which purported to come from Santiago. Even when it became known that these dispatches were inspired by Cuban malcontents in Havana and concotted in the Inglaterra cafe, it was still felt that these opponents of a rational solution of the Cuban army question might be able to prevent a large number from applying to the American paymasters. Those who knew the facts of the case believed that the Santiago insurgents were much under estimated. tiago insurgents were much under esti-mated on the pay rolls, especially as the Cuban generals had always claimed that Outlaws Continue Active. A dispatch from Puerto Principe says the rural guards there were notified of the presence of a band of forty armed men near the city, and pursued them to Carvajal plantation, where the outlaws gave fight from behind a stone wall. After ten minutes of hot firing the band made a dash for the road and escaped, losing one man, Luis Cruz, a former resident of Nuevitas, and always a worthless character. The rural guards had two men wounded. They captured fifteen horses, which the outlaws had been leading. The band recently stole eight ritles a number of revolvers a number of revolvers. eight rifles, a number of revolvers, a num-ber of machetes and a quantity of cart-ridges, with which it was evidently intended Secreey Enjoined.

La Correspondencia of Cienfuegos says General Wilson has ordered police headquarters not to give reports of department affairs to the newspapers, and especial care has been enjoined regarding the suburban work of the rural guards.

El Diario de la Marina yesterday asserted that a farmer was recently robbed by a band claiming to belong to a new junta organized to oust the Americans by war if necessary. It does not give the name of the farmer nor locate the farm, except to say that the robbery took place near Mariel.

False Alarms of Fire. District Commissioner Wight, who has immediate supervision of the fire alarm telegraph system, inspected Saturday afternoon n company with Mr. Walter C. Allen, the District electrical engineer, an invention of Mr. Loudoun Campbell, designed to prevent the turning in of false alarms of fire. Mr. Campbell's device is so arranged that in order for a person to turn in an alarm of fire from a box it becomes necessary for the person to pass the hand through a small opening. This opening is protected by thin metal shutters, and when the hand pushes them apart to reach the key of the box an electrical connection is made. This connection instantly sets off a gong placed in a latticed box located three or four fee above the fire alarm box. The ringing of the gong thereby attracts such general at-tention as to make the turning in of an tention as to make the furning in of an alarm a matter of publicity.

Mr. Campbell's device also contemplates the substitution, if deemed desirable, of an arrangement contrived to secure the hand of a person using a fire alarm box equipped with it in such a manner as to make the party a prisoner. When this device is used the person desiring to turn in an alarm passes the hand through a box-like arrangement attached to the outside of the rangement attached to the outside of the fire alarm box. When the key of the box is turned several metal points close around the wrist of the party so tightly as to prevent the withdrawal of the hand. The person, indeed, cannot be released until the arrival of a policeman, or of some other person authorized to carry a release key. The device can, however, so Mr. Campbell claims, be so set by fire alarm headquarters as to hold the hand of the person turning in the alarm for such a length of time as may be deemed desirable. rangement attached to the outside of the

The hand-catching device neither Mr. Wight nor Mr. Allen considered desirable, as it would imprison a citizen whose motive was good as well as one who simply desired to see the fire department turn out. They also stated that the gong device is not new.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

Present and Former Prime Ministers Disagree About Reforms. W. P. Schreiner, prime minister of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, says the Cape government regards the Transvaal's reform proposals as adequate and calculated to insure a peaceful settlement. The colonial premier, however, represents the Afrikander element. Sir John Gordon Sprigg, former prime minister and colonial secretary, who is an ardent imperialist, considers them totally inadequate to meet the just claims of the Outlanders, and altogether less than Sir Alfred Milner, governor of the colony and British high commissioner for South Africa, demanded of Fresident Kruger at the Bloemfontein, conference.

mportant Recommendations of the British Parliamentary Committee. A London dispatch says: The report of the parliamentary committee on Indian currency, just issued in the form of a blue book, approves the decision of the government not to revert to a silver standard. It argues that it would be impossible to maintain the status quo permanently, and, therefore, recommends that measures be taken to introduce a gold standard, with the British sovereign as legal tender, and advises that the Indian mints be allowed to coin gold without restrictions on the same terms as the Australian mints. Finally, by a majority of votes, the committee recommends fixing the rupee rate at sixteen pence. at sixteen pence.

The report says in conclusion:

"The effective establishment of a gold standard is of paramount importance to the material interests of India, not only to promote existing trade, but to encourage the influx of capital."

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. NARRAGANSETT PIER, July 7, 1899. Not for years, if ever, were so many Washingtonians at Narragansett the firs week in July. The hotels have made an are at a premium. John R. McLean, publisher of the Cincianati Enquirer, now of Washington, has Emmet cottage on Ocean road. F. C. Van Horne is at Dove cottage on the South Pier read. Edward A. Mitchell is installed in Redman cottage on Rodman street. Mrs. S. J. Todd has "Morningside" on the Kingstown road. Central street includes the Rev. P. M. Prescott at Prestecote, Miss Margaret E. Gale at Idlewild and Mrs. Beale at Kirklea. On the Cliff road are to be found E. D. White at | H. Finnisterre, N. M. Jackson, U. S. N.; Mrs. S. Jackson, Miss Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brown, Wm. H. Acklan, All indications point to an unprecedented senson at the American Trouville, now styled the Brighton of America. The Casino and all the hotels have been open a week and the Fourth brought as many guests a and the Fourth prought as many guests as can usually be counted late in July. The recent rains and winds have so freshened everything that Narragansett was never brighter. Cottagers were never before so numerous. One new hotel has been put up -the largest yet built here-and another of the biggest hostelries has been enlarged and remodeled. All the inns have been bettered more or less, so that accommodations have been strikingly increased since last season. All the larger hotels have orchestras this year, some of the musicians reveiing in such names as the Imbarrato Trou-badours. Another development is the solarium, or sun parlor, heretofore confined to winter resorts. A return to the Veranda fad is noted, the newer hotels all having miles of plazzas. The tendency of all these changes is to make each hotel more of a distinct community, drawing away from the Casino, which has always served as a great social clearing house. Sherry made a blunder here years ago in giving band concerts at the bathing pavillon and charging admission thereto. Now the pavilion band has been discontinued and the admission fee abolished. The bathing house of rium, or sun parlor, heretofore confined to sion fee abolished. The bathing house of the Providence Steamboat Company is to near a competitor. If excursionists invad-Sherry's place, as now seems certain, aris tocratic Pierites will have fits. The whole tendency is toward popularizing Narragan-sett. One of the largest merry-go-rounds in the country has been set up in the cen-ter of the beach. The Sunday excursion-ists offer the most troublesome problem for the police. The future of the resort trem-bles in the balance; by August it will tip at one end or the other. The facilities for reaching Narragansett have been striking-by increased since last summer. The Sec idence and Block Island, and the Newpor boat, spic and span, makes four trips week days and two Sundays, giving a glimpse of the North Atlantic squadron.

Charms of Mountain Life at Well-Known Resorts-Washington Arrivals Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. BLUE RIDGE SUMMIT, July 7, 1899. This pleasant summer retreat in the Blue mountains has again taken on its gay appearance, and the warm weather is bringing large numbers of guests daily to the hotels and cottages about Buena Vista from the national capital are expected later, when the season is at its height.

Springs, Monterey, Blue mountain and Blue Ridge Summit. A large number of guests

Dr. Ralph Jenkins is at his cottage near Monterey Inn, and is one of the leaders in promoting the social life about this resort. He was instrumental in organizing the Blue Ridge Mountain Club, the membership of which includes persons from all the resorts. The building formerly used as a library and museum at Monterey will be the club's home. A nine-hole golf course has been completed, under the direction of Dr. Jenkins, the first tee being held on Saturday. These Washington people have been at the Blue Mountain House during the past week: Harris Crist, W. F. Rodrick, Miss M. L. Lorentz and J. E. Jenks.

The social life at Buena Vista is entered from the national capital are expected later,

M. L. Lorentz and J. E. Jenks.

The social life at Buena Vista is entered into by these Washington people: Rev. and Mrs. S. Ward Righter. Mrs. E. J. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ayers and son, G. C. Dean, Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crawford and Miss Caryl Crawford.

At the beautiful Monterey Inn these Washington guests are registered: Miss Eilen Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Mason.

Among the guests at Buena Vista this season are the members of the family of Mr. A. Lazo Arriaga, the Guatemalan minister to the United States.

The total development of track system The total development of track system owned by the commune is sixty-six miles. But, as some of the trams run over the same track for certain distances at various points, the actual length of track is forty-two miles. The contract which the Societa Generale Edison di Electtricita has with the municipality of Milan for the management of the city's tramways lasts for twenty years. The commune provided at its own expense the laying down of the tracks, which were transferred to the above society on the payment of 4,500 lines.

The commune pays to the above society 25½ centesimi (5.1 cents) for each car per kilometer. From the total yearly receipts are deducted the amounts paid by the society to the commune and by the commune to the society, and the remainder is divided between the society and the commune in the proportion of 40 per cent to the former the proportion of 40 per cent to the former and 60 per cent to the latter.

The regulations permit of cars carrying more passengers than there are seats, but, to prevent overcrowding, the gates are often closed. Only one gate is opened on each car—which will seat about eighteen passengers—and this is always on the opposite side of the car from the parallel track; so there is no danger of stepping off in front of an approaching tram. There were 44,559,888 passengers carried in 1838, agains: 39,736,091 in 1897.

The tram service in Milan is excellent; the cars are run with care and skill and, when it is possible, at a fair rate of speed. There are very few accidents, although there is a perfect network of tracks in the Plazza del Duomo, and many of the streets through which the trams run are very narrow. The conductors are polite and obliging
